Wilkins, general agent for that company, at which time they met in conference with Mr. Wilkins in regard to making arrangements for the campaign to get new business. The month of Oct. 1916 was a record breaker, being the largest month for new business that Mr. Wilkins has ever had and the past year will go far beyond any other during his long service with the company in the amount of business done.

Archie Whittemore Found

Archie Whittemore, the insane man, who escaped from the home of his father, Daniel Whittemore, at Eden Mills, ten days ago, was found Tuesday afternoon in a hut in the Bigelow pasture four miles from home. He was discovered by Geo. O'Brien, who found him asleep on a bed of leaves. He talked rationally with O'Brien, who in a short time had a posse of hunters with him. He willingly returned home. He was in good health, having found sustenance in apples, and beechnuts, with now and then a drink of milk that he surreptitiously obtained. The use of a blood hound and clairvoyants were enlisted in the search for him, but without avail, he being found after they had departed. It was generally thought that when found he would be dead from exposure or drowning in the lake.

A 25c ticket will admit one to both.

Strong on Preparedness

Howard Chase of the west part of town and Archie Hill of this village are in Hyde Park jail awaiting trial at the December term of County Court. They were arrested last week on the charge of having killed and appropriated for future use a steer belonging to the C. E. & F. O. Burt Co. of Stowe. At a hearing conducted by State's Attorney Maurice before Judge Watts in Stowe Monday sufficient evidence was found to warrant holding the men in $500 bonds each, which they were unable to furnish. It is alleged that the men sold the hide of the animal at Stebbins' market in Stowe and salted the meat at the home of Chase, which is the Teveyaw place at the entrance to Beaver meadow.

This case brings to mind other losses of animals, poultry etc., the past few months. Among the recent cases being a bull belonging to E. E. Hadley, which has been missing from the Cleve White pasture since last week and two heifers belonging to C. I. Story, which were recently lost from a pasture in the west part of town.

Chaffee—Beardsley

Last Thursday afternoon at the home of Rev. and Mrs. George W. Tabor on Jersey Heights, occurred the marriage of Miss Mildred Beardsley, daughter of Mrs. Nettie Beardsley of North Hyde Park and Roy Leon Chaffee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merton R. Chaffee of the west part of town. Rev. Mr. Tabor performed the ceremony.

Last Thursday evening at the groom's parents in the west part of town, a reception was tendered the newly married couple, which was attended by about forty neighbors and friends. The evening was very pleasantly spent with cards, dancing and various games, refreshments of cake and coffee being served. Mr. and Mrs. Chaffee were presented with many nice presents, including glass-ware and silver. After a few days' visit with relatives in Cambridge and other points Mr. and Mrs. Chaffee will reside on the old Chaffee farm, M. R. Chaffee and family moving to the Charles Davis place which they recently purchased.

The contracting parties are well and favorably known in this vicinity and have many friends who will join this paper in extending congratulations and best wishes.

Davidson—Morrill

Elsie Louise Morrill, a daughter of the late Truman Morrill, and Irvin Davidson, son of Mrs. Robert Wright of Lyndonville, were united in marriage last Saturday evening by Justice Niles. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson will reside in Lyndonville, where he is employed in a machine shop.

The bride has resided in Morrisville for several years and the groom was employed for some time by E. C. Phelps on the Elmore mountain road. Morrisville friends extend best wishes.

Mr. Davidson was called to Island Pond Sunday by the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. E. G. Davidson.

Dies on Trip to Hospital

Mrs. Leon Amsden died suddenly Monday morning, after a few hours' illness, while being taken to the hospital in Burlington. She had been in her usual health until about ten o'clock Sunday night and had spent the afternoon with her husband at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abbott Amsden, on Lake street. She was on her way home—Mr. Amsden having gone to the Morse Mill, where his father is night watchman—when she was taken violently ill and was carried to her home. A physician was called and her condition was so serious that it was thought best to take her to Burlington and the party started at about seven a. m., in J. P. Roy's car but Mrs. Amsden expired before they had gone a mile toward Hyde Park.

Anna Aldina McDermott was born in Wolcott, December 1, 1892, one of several children of Mr. and Mrs. John McDermott and came to Morrisville when one year of age, where she had passed the remainder of her life. She was united in marriage to Leon Amsden in 1915. She is survived by her husband, parents, three brothers and two sisters: Owen N., John E., Maurice J., Mrs. Mary J. Teveyaw and Kate R. McDermott.

The funeral was held from the home of her parents, at two o'clock today, Rev. W. T. Best of the Methodist church officiating. Interment was in Mountain View cemetery.

New Arrival of Oval Picture Frames and Bent Glass

OWING to the fact that many agents have been canvassing Morrisville and vicinity for enlarged photographs, and selling their frames and glass at exorbitant prices, we have secured a stock of the same and are prepared to do your framing in this line at a great saving. Our frames and glass are priced from $1.75 upwards, so why not give us your work instead of taking the same thing from agents at from $3.50 upwards. We can save you good money and guarantee to furnish as good or better frames and glass. Also, a big line of Mouldings for making up picture frames. Let us do your work.

Improvements at A. C. Church

The local Advent Christian church, under the pastorate of Rev. J. J. Bennett, with his able corps of workers has made many improvements upon the church property the past year. Among the recent exterior improvements are new cement steps and walk and a new chimney from the ground to the top of the church in the rear. The basement of the church has also been lowered and is being cemented. Another improvement, which was brought about through the efforts of Harold H. Patch was the finishing off of a room in the top of the church over the vestry, which utilizes a space hitherto unused. This is occupied by an enthusiastic class of boys organized under the name of the Loyal Vermont Workers, and taught by Rev. Mr. Bennett.

HYDE PARK

Mrs. R. S. Page is spending a few days in Burlington.

A. J. Clark and wife were business visitors in Burlington yesterday.

Fred Cowan of Whitefield, N. H., has been spending a week in town.

Mrs. E. E. Badger is spending a few days with relatives in Hardwick.

This is a Republican year. Vote for R. W. Crocker for Representative.

Sam'l Morey has moved to Morrisville, where he has a position as section boss.

When Hyde Park wants license she will vote license. Next Tuesday is "not the time nor the place" to consider that.

Remember the entertainment at the Cong'l church Thursday evening. The ladies are preparing a fine affair and you should not miss it.

It is a serious business to pull down guide boards.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Fuller of Wilmington, Mass., and Mrs. N. R. Prentiss of Redington, Mass., who have been visiting their cousin, Edw. Styles, returned to their homes today.

The Republicans of this town have a worthy candidate for Representative in Rollo W. Crocker of the North village. He is an exemplary young man, has served several years on the school board and is its present chairman. He will make a good Representative and will be found laboring for the best interests of his town and state. It has been several years since the north village has had the Representative and it is but fair that it should go to that end of the town this year. The Republican party is strongly in the majority in this town and that party should see to it that their candidate receives the full vote.

The opening entertainment of the lecture course on Monday evening was largely attended. The concert given by the Mildred Morrison Co., was an excellent one, every number being of a high order, was well received. Miss Morrison as a vocalist and reader is charming, while Miss Lindskog, as a violinist and pianist proved herself an artist. Mr. Taggart has a fine voice and in his solos and in the duets with Miss Morrison rendered several fine selections. He is at home also with the slide trombone. The Ladies' Club, who are at the head of the course this season, are to be congratulated upon the auspicious opening of the same.
